We welcome life celebrations of all faiths!

The Unitarian Church of Marlborough and Hudson Welcomes Everyone!

For more than 150 years, the Unitarian Church of Marlborough and Hudson has been a beacon of hope, sanctuary for peace, and historic landmark for many special occasions.

UCMH celebrates people of all faiths and spiritual affiliations—including theists, pagans, atheists, and agnostics—and we welcome the community to host public and private events on our premises.

Functions may include weddings, baby dedications, memorial services, conferences, workshops, seminars, group meetings, networking events, parties for all ages, reunions, showers, retreats, business and club breakfasts, luncheons, and dinners, annual meetings, fundraiser events, theatrical performances, musical and benefit concerts, dance recitals, theatrical plays, children's playgroups, teen gatherings and more.

We can accommodate a wide range of events with our flexible layout and affordable rental options.

The Sanctuary
